The failure or delay of the Association to prepare or deliver to the Members of the annual or adjusted estimate shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of such Member's obligation to pay the maintenance costs and necessary reserves, as herein provided, whenever the same shall be determined and in the absence of any annual estimate or adjusted estimate of assessments, the Member shall continue to pay the yearly assessment at the existing rate established for the previous period until the assessment payment which is due more than ten (10) days after such new annual or adjusted estimate shall have been mailed or delivered.

Section 17. Security Deposits from Certain Members. shall in no event exceed an amount which is in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the annual assessment. In the event that any Member shall fail to pay any assessments, charges or other sums which may be due hereunder or shall otherwise violate any covenants, terms and conditions of the Declaration, the Articles or of these Bylaws, the Association shall have the right, but not the obligation, to apply such security deposit in reduction of its alleged damages resulting from such failure or violation, which right shall be in addition to all other remedies provided for in the Declaration or these Bylaws. Upon any sale by such Member of his lot, or at such time as such Member's equity in his Lot is sufficiently great to dispense with the necessity of such security deposit, any unapplied balance of said security deposit remaining to the credit of said Member shall be refunded, provided that such Member shall not be in default under any of his obligations under the Declaration, the Articles or these Bylaws. The Association shall have the right to maintain all security deposits held by it as aforesaid in a single bank account and shall not be required to credit interest thereon to any Member; such interest, if any, to be paid to and retained by the Association. Said security deposit shall at all times be subject and subordinate to the lien in favor of the Association as described in the Declaration and all rights thereof shall inure to the benefit of the lienor.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Conflict of Interest. A trustee or officer of the Association shall not be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the Association as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise. No transaction or contract or act of the Association shall be void or voidable if made by any firm of which any trustee or officer is a member or any corporation of which any office or trustee is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which any trustee or officer of the Association is a trustee or beneficiary is in any way interested in such transaction or contract or act. No trustee or officer shall be accountable or responsible to the Association for or in respect to any transaction or contract or act of the Association or for any gains or profits directly or indirectly realized by him by reason of the fact that he or any firm of which he is a member or any corporation of which he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he is a trustee or beneficiary, is interested in such transaction or contract or act, provided the fact that such trustee or officer or such firm or such corporation or such trust is so interested shall have been disclosed or shall have been known to the Board or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board at which action upon such contract or transaction or act shall have been taken. Any trustee may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board which shall authorize or take action in respect to any such contract or transaction or act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify, or approve any such contract or transaction or act, and any officer of the Association may take any action within the scope of his authority respecting such contract or transaction or act, with like force and effect as if he or any firm of which he is a member, or any corporation of which he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he is a trustee or beneficiary were not interested in such transaction or contract or act. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause or proceedings, the question of whether a trustee or officer of the Association has acted in good faith is material, and notwithstanding any statute or rule of law or of equity to the contrary (if any there be), his good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary by clear and convincing evidence.

Without limitation, the term "expenses" included any amount paid or agreed to be paid in satisfaction of a judgment or in settlement of a judgment or claim of liability other than any amount paid or agreed to be paid by the Association itself. The Association does not, however, indemnify any trustee or officer in respect to any matter as to which he shall be finally adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties as such trustee or officer, nor in the case of a settlement, unless such settlement shall be found to be in the interest of the Association by (i) the court having jurisdiction of the action, suit or proceeding against such trustee or officer of a suit involving his right to indemnification or (ii) a majority of the trustees of the Association then in office other than those involved in such matter (whether or not such majority constitutes a quorum), or if there be not trustees who are not involved in the matter, then by disinterested Association members entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power shall, by vote at any annual or special meeting of the Association, approve such settlement and the reimbursement to such Board member or officer of such costs and expenses. The phrase "disinterested members" shall mean all members of the Association other than (i) any Board member or officer of the Association who at the time is or may be entitled to indemnification pursuant to the foregoing provisions, (ii) any corporation or organization of which any such Board member or officer owns of record or beneficially ten percent (10%) or more of any class of voting securities, (iii) any firm of which such Board member or officer is a partner, and (iv) any spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of any such Board member or officer. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and legal representatives of each such Board member or officer, and shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any Board member or officer may be entitled as a matter of law or under the Declaration, any vote of Association members or any agreement.
